1. The reorganization of the Albanian Government in July 1954 was the result of the Soviet policy of collective leadership. Enver Hoxha is still in firm control of government affairs. Spiro Koleka may soon be replaced on the Politburo by Tuk Jakova.¹
2. Western radio propaganda is not effective among the people in Albania because of the absence of accurate information regarding Albanian affairs and the aggressive tones of the broadcasts which appeal to only a small segment of the population.

Comment:

25X1

1. Spiro Koleka is a member of the Politburo and President of the State Planning Committee. Tuk Jakova is Vice-Chairman of the Council of Ministers and the only high ranking member of the Council not sitting on the Politburo.
